Change in Company Secretary

Norwest Energy NL (“Norwest” or the “Company”) advises that Ms. Emma Curnow will commence maternity leave on 15 September 2017, and will be temporarily resigning from her position as Company Secretary.

The Company would like to thank Ms. Curnow for her service over the past 15 months and looks forward to her return.

Mrs. Jo-Ann Long has been appointed to fill this role as Company Secretary with effect from today. In addition to the Company Secretary role, Mrs Long has been appointed as Chief Financial Officer.

Mrs. Long holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Western Australia, is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and a graduate member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. Mrs. Long has over 28 years of experience in building, leading and advising corporations on financial management, restructures, international expansion, acquisitions and risk management. Commencing with Deloitte’s and followed by 18 years in the Oil and Gas industry with Woodside and Transerv Energy (now Whitebark Energy), Mrs. Long has expertise in joint venture operations, commercial agreements, tax strategies, risk management and governance. With strong broad commercial and business skills Mrs. Long brings a strong discipline of financial management and a track record of documented contributions of improved financial performance, heightened productivity and enhanced internal controls.
